

Question 5: Middle Element of Linked List

Scenario:

Write a function to find the middle element of a singly linked list. If there are an even number of nodes, return the first of the two middle nodes.

Constraints:

- The list has up to 1000 nodes.

Input:

The values for each node in the linked list.

Output:

The middle element of the list.